GENERAL ORDER NUMBER 29

Amendment to Local Rule 83.1(a)(5)
increasing the attorney admission fee
from $50.00 to $150.00.

At their March 2004 meeting, the Judicial Conference of the United States amended the District Court Miscellaneous Fee Schedule<sup>1</sup> to increase the fee for attorney admissions from $50.00 to $150.00. Accordingly, effective June 1, 2004, Local Rule 83.1(a)(5) is amended to reflect the increase in the attorney admission fee from $50.00 to $150.00. Given this increase to the national admission fee, the Northern District will waive the additional $30.00 Northern District Fee previously imposed on new attorney admissions. This waiver does not apply to the $30.00 Northern District fee imposed on Pro Hac Vice Admissions pursuant to Local Rule 83.1(d).

The $30.00 Northern District biennial attorney registration fee will continue to be collected by the Court. The biennial fee will be collected next on June 1, 2005 and every two years thereafter in accordance with Local Rule 83.1(a)(5).
